

Mission (2006):

The Bridgton Public Library is committed to serve the community as a center for reading and reference resources and for reading-related programs, inquiry, and learning. Library staff upholds the public's freedom of access to educational, vocational, informational, reference, cultural, and recreational materials in a variety of formats, and in a professional, friendly, welcoming atmosphere. Library staff and Trustees seek to respond to the changing needs of our patrons and evolving technologies, in order to fulfill our role as a dynamic, service-oriented library.

Mission: (2011)

The Bridgton Public Library is committed to serve the community as its information center. Efforts will be directed to provide access to educational, informational, and recreational materials in a friendly atmosphere. The Library will be responsive to the changing needs of the community and aware of evolving technologies available to fulfill its role as a service oriented dynamic library.

1/9/13

Mission: (2016)

The Bridgton Public Library's primary purpose is to serve the community as its information and cultural enrichment center. It endeavors to provide access to educational, informational, and recreational resources in a friendly, safe atmosphere, and to be responsive to the changing needs of the community.
[adopted by Board of Trustees July 19, 2016]