

Mount Blanc Alps Scenic Paper Tearing Craft

The Alps is the greatest mountain range of Europe. It reaches from Austria and Slovenia in the east; through Italy, Switzerland, Liechtenstein and Germany; to France in the west.

The highest mountain in the Alps is Mont Blanc, at 4,808 meters (15,774 ft), on the Italian–French border.

The Tour du Mont Blanc is a 105 mile trail that circumnavigates (goes around) Mont Blanc. In order to summit Mont Blanc you need a lot of special gear and it is only for experts. The Tour du Mont Blanc is much easier any many people complete it each year, even if it still is a challenge! The trail passes through France, Italy, and Switzerland.

*Miss Sam posing in front of Mont Blanc!

Craft Instructions

Find construction paper, wrapping paper, or color white pieces of paper to have textures and different colors. Choose one piece of paper to use as your background. In this photo they all used blue as their background. Then rip the other paper making interesting lines. Glue the topmost mountain first and work your way down to the bottom of the page layering. Draw on trees, animals, or people if you want!