

Maine Author: Robert Spencer

Bridgton Public Library

Saturday May 16, 1:00-2:00 pm

Special Virtual Event on Zoom

Please join us for a reading and discussion by the author of Prospects: A Novel. It is based on the life of Clarence Potter, a Canadian miner who moved from the backwoods of Northern Ontario to Maine in 1897 to make a fortune in the mines of Oxford County and to find a new wife. Spencer captures the tenor of an era when opportunities for improvement in life were growing for both men and women.
