Monthly Highlights

BPL's Of Interest Sections:

What might interest you this month? Check out these staff picks for a great winter read!

- Jewish Heritage Month
- Gardening

April brings a season of renewal, and there's plenty happening at the library! Explore new books and displays, and enjoy programs for all ages. From storytimes and creative activities like our take home crafts, to community connections and fresh spring reads, there's something for everyone this month. Stop in, see what's new, and be part of all that's blooming at your library!

National Library Week at BPL

Join us in celebrating National Library Week from April 19–26! This is a special time to celebrate the joy of reading, lifelong learning, and the heart of our community here at Bridgton Public Library. We invite you to stop by for a great book recommendation and to share a favorite memory, photo, or quote in our special scrapbook stations—our staff are always here to help. Most of all, thank you to everyone who fills our library with connection, curiosity, and warmth—you are truly what makes this place so special!

Snow Shoes Curtesy of Loon Echo Land Trust

With warmer temps around the corner, now's the time to soak up those last snowy adventures. Thanks to Loon Echo Land Trust, our patrons can borrow snowshoes and poles from the library and explore Pondicherry Park and other LETL trails. Check out at the Library, and get to the trails while the snow lasts!

Donation Day at the Book Shed

Bring your gently used books to the Bridgton Public Library for our Donation Day at the Book Shed on April 25th from 11AM to 2 PM! Your donations help keep our community library vibrant. Contributions go towards our annual Book Sale which is generously hosted by the Friends of Bridgton Public Library each year. Swing by, drop off your books, and be part of supporting your local library during National Library Week 2026!
