Winter Reading Activities

As winter holds on here in Maine, we're embracing its quieter pace—settling into these restful days as a time for growth and imagination. At Bridgton Public Library, we invite you to carry that same spirit this season with some fun activities to try at home. Some ideas are: host a story read-aloud night, build a blanket fort for cozy flashlight reading, or write your own “snow day story” and act it out with friends and family. There are so many ways to enjoy these slow days, stop by for a wintery read and let us know what activities were your favorite!

March is National Reading

Month! Join us as we celebrate Read Across America this month with the theme “Champion Kindness”. Read a book that inspires joy and compassion, write a thank you note to someone who has helped you, or donate a book to a local charity or classroom. Small acts make a big difference. Visit our circulation desk this month for book lists and activities!

Technology Help at BPL

Is your computer stuck in a freeze? Come see Racheal for a little tech help! Whether you're curious about internet searching, printing, or learning your way around a tablet, iPad, or laptop, bring your device (or use one of ours) and settle in for friendly, no-stress guidance. Call ahead or stop on by for a little support to keep you warm & connected all season long. Available weekdays!

Winter Park Passes

Looking for cozy winter adventures the whole family can enjoy? As part of the Chickadee Library Consortium we have free and discounted passes available for a variety of local spots, including The Children's Museum, The Southworth Planetarium, Rufus Porter Museum, and The Portland Museum of Art. Stop by the Main Circulation Desk to grab a pass and plan a fun indoor outing!
