Monthly Highlights

BPL's Annual Book Sale!

We're excited to announce that Bridgton Public Library's Annual Book Sale, kindly put on by the Friends of Bridgton Public Library, will take place on Saturday, July 18th, from 9:00 AM to 2:00 PM. in the Library parking located on Church Street. Come browse a wide selection of gently used books, games, and more while supporting your local library. We have a variety for all ages and interests—whether you're searching for your next great read, children's books, or a hidden treasure, there's something here for everyone. We hope you come out and join us for this much anticipated event!

BPL's Of Interest Sections:

What might interest you this month?

- Plastic Free Month
- Summer Reading

July is here, and there's something for everyone to enjoy at Bridgton Public Library! Young learners are invited to explore our Summer STEAM Tables and spark creativity with our Robotics-To-Go kits. Adults can join in the fun with our Annual Book Sale and Summer Reading Program. Be sure to browse our monthly Of Interest displays, featuring titles focused on sustainability and great seasonal reads. As we celebrate the arrival of summer in the Lakes Region, we wish everyone a safe and happy Fourth of July and invite our community to join us in commemorating America 250!

An Invitation to Read ME Author Talk

Join Read ME featured author Lewis Robinson for a special online talk about his novel The Islanders, one of this year's Read ME selections and a title representing Maine at the Library of Congress' National Book Festival in 2026. Robinson will read passages from his book, reflect on his writing process, and answer questions from readers across the state. Patrons may register for this virtual event by scanning the QR Code Below or visiting our Linktree: <https://linktr.ee/bridgtonpubliclibrary>.
